Brown's golden strike

STEVEN MAHER
DAMEN Brown capped off a fairytale season by setting up a goal and scoring an extra-time winner as The Entrance beat Berkeley Vale in a pulsating Premier League grand final on Saturday at Blacktown.

"I loved that, it was a long of fun," a delighted Brown said minutes after full-time.

Lightning women champions, daylight second 2010

CENTRAL Coast Lightning dominated their Sydney-based rivals to take out two Football NSW women's premierships on Saturday at Blacktown. The Lightning under-14s started the day with a comprehensive 3-0 win over Northern Tigers in their grand final. The youngsters stayed in Sydney to cheer their first grade players didn't lose their focus and put on three goals of their own before the break. They sealed the match with a final goal with about 10 minutes to go. Captain Riarna Keane scored two goals for the victors, as did Melissa Swinfield, who took out Football NSW's player of the match award.

Abbott scores goal with $3m upgrade promise

OPPOSITION Leader Tony Abbott was briefly "king of the kids" when he made a flying visit to the Central Coast on Sunday. He announced that a Coalition government, if elected, would give Plum Park at Lisarow, a centre of soccer on the coast, a $3 million upgrade.

IT WAS A BUBBLING affair as the under-13 Super Youth League grand final win on Saturday. Lightning coach David Hurley said the 2-1 win over premiers Sydney University was a massive achievement. "It was truly a team effort, I couldn't isolate any one player, they were all invaluable," Hurley said.

Wake-up call for Dragons

EMMA HERD 2011
GOSFORD City received a reality check heading into the Championship of Champions tournament after a hard-fought women's Premier League grand final win over Wyong. The undefeated Dragons were given their biggest test of the past two seasons in their 3-2 win in Saturday's decider at Plum Park, Lisarow.

2011
PREMIER League champions Gosford City kicked off the season with another title when they won the Central Coast Cup women's title on Sunday. A well taken goal from central midfielder Lisa Sullivan just before half-time was the difference as the Dragons beat a palmy Doyalson 1-0 at Plum Park, Lisarow. "There were some anxious moments for Gosford in the second half," said captain Lisa Sullivan.

2012 Grand Final
Umina upset Gosford in Premier League Grand Final. The conclusion to the Women's Premier League (WPL) competition had its fair share of drama and Gosford looked the more dangerous side as Umina backed off their intensity 30 minutes into the game and missed an opportunity to take the lead when a penalty was awarded. Umina were unable to capitalise on their opportunities. The conclusion of extra time could not separate the two squads and the ensuing penalty shootout.

2013
Swinfield gives Killarney winning edge. A GOAL from Mel Swinfield in extra-time was the difference as Killarney Districts secured the double in the women's Premier League. In only their second year in the top competition, Killarney Districts beat 2010 and 2011 champions Gosford 1-0 in the grand final.

2014
Soaring Eagles in goal blitz. THE ENTRANCE WIN AN EPIC. The Entrance parted long and hard after claiming successive Premier League grand titles on Saturday night. After some tense moments, the Sea Eagles hung on to beat Gosford 3-2. Goals from Josh Swinfield in each half and a strong goal to Glen Williams proved the difference. "That was tough, but we got the job done again," jubilar captain-coach Matt Page said. "To do this with the same group so soon after being promoted is great, it's hard to stay consistent for so long."

2015
All smiles as Eagles rock night away. THE ENTRANCE PARTIED LONG AND HARD AFTER CLAIMING SUCCESSIVE PREMIER LEAGUE GRAND TITLES ON SATURDAY NIGHT. AFTER SOME TENSE MOMENTS, THE SEA EAGLES HUNG ON TO BEAT GOSFORD 3-2. GOALS FROM JOSH SWINFIELD IN EACH HALF AND A STRONG GOAL TO GLEN WILLIAMS PROVED THE DIFFERENCE. "THAT WAS TOUGH, BUT WE GOT THE JOB DONE AGAIN," JUBILAR CAPTAIN-COACH MATT PAGE SAID. "TO DO THIS WITH THE SAME GROUP SO SOON AFTER BEING PROMOTED IS GREAT, IT'S HARD TO STAY CONSISTENT FOR SO LONG."
